POLICY MERITORIOUS ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA 2

Purpose

RGI’s Policy on Scholarships is intended to provide reasonable guidelines for the acceptance, establishment, and disbursement of funds for student scholarships. The purpose of RGI’s scholarship program is to identify and support superior ability and achievement. The program is likewise a testimony to the dedication of the Associated Students, Incorporated to higher education and the honoring of effort.

Policy Statement

The Associated Students, Incorporated regularly has opportunities to receive and apply funds to encourage and reward students. The acceptance and awarding of all scholarship funds shall be in accordance with the mission and goals of Rathinam Group of Institutions.

RGI shall permit donors to place reasonable conditions upon the award of their Scholarship completely based on their Merit, providing they do not violate existing regulations.

Announcement of scholarships shall be timely and widespread. At least once every academic year, a list of scholarship opportunities shall be compiled, distributed to the campus community, and made available to applicants. The information on the list shall include:

- The amount
- The conditions to be met by applicants
- Application procedures and deadlines
- Dates of selection and disbursement

The RGI Admission Office shall be responsible for coordinating with the Center for Scholarship Information for the review of applications and selection of recipients of scholarship funds.

Regulations

1.0 Eligibility for Scholarships

Eligibility for all scholarships awarded by the Associated Students, Incorporated shall be restricted to students regularly enrolled at Rathinam Group of Institutions. For purposes of this policy, students enrolled through University Counseling shall not be considered “regularly enrolled” but considered as Counseling enrolled.

2.0 Financial Aid Reporting

All scholarships to be awarded by RGI shall be reported to the Center for Scholarship Information Office of Financial Aid prior to the solicitation and acceptance of applications. Reporting shall be done in the manner prescribed by that office.

3.0 Presentation of Scholarships

All scholarships awarded under this policy shall be announced at the admission itself. Scholarships presented at this time shall specify that they are to be applied toward subsequent academic periods only, including summer session.

4.0 Payment of Scholarships

Payment of RGI funded scholarships shall be issued by the Center for Scholarship Information Office of Financial Aid.
